Graphics & Signage Disclaimer

GENERAL DISCLAIMER

Clearchoice Signs & Graphics is not responsible for the costs of reproducing or replacing graphics due to layout, color, and/or other changes or revisions not noted prior to production. The customer is responsible for ensuring that all artwork, install information, including layout is accurate. Additional Changes, production, proofs or revisions will require additional production charges. You, the customer agrees to approve all artwork either in writing or verbally.

PRODUCTION DISCLAIMER

Clearchoice Signs & Graphics does not warranty, accept responsibility or any liability for graphic failure resulting from improper installation methods. We are not responsible for damage caused during sign/graphic removal. You, the customer, agrees to thoroughly prep vehicles for graphics installation, including washing without wax and drying. For off site installations, you, the customer, agrees to provide a clean space that has been surveyed and approved for installation. If there are circumstances that are not previously noted prior to installation, we reserve the right to not move forward with the install and may re-schedule, this may require an additional charge.

ARTWORK PROOF APPROVAL

Clearchoice Signs & Graphics will not accept liability for missed errors after the proofing process. Any changes from your previously approved copy will be charged accordingly. Your approval constitutes acceptance of responsibility for all errors. You agree that sizing and positioning of graphics and elements are for proofing process only, and may be adjusted as needed for production or installation.

This disclaimer must be read, understood, signed, and dated by the client/clients before any graphics, signage, vehicle wraps are produced. Any questions you have about this disclaimer or CCSG's guarantees and warranties, please contact your sales rep.

CUSTOMER NAME: _____

SIGNATURE: _____

DATE: _____